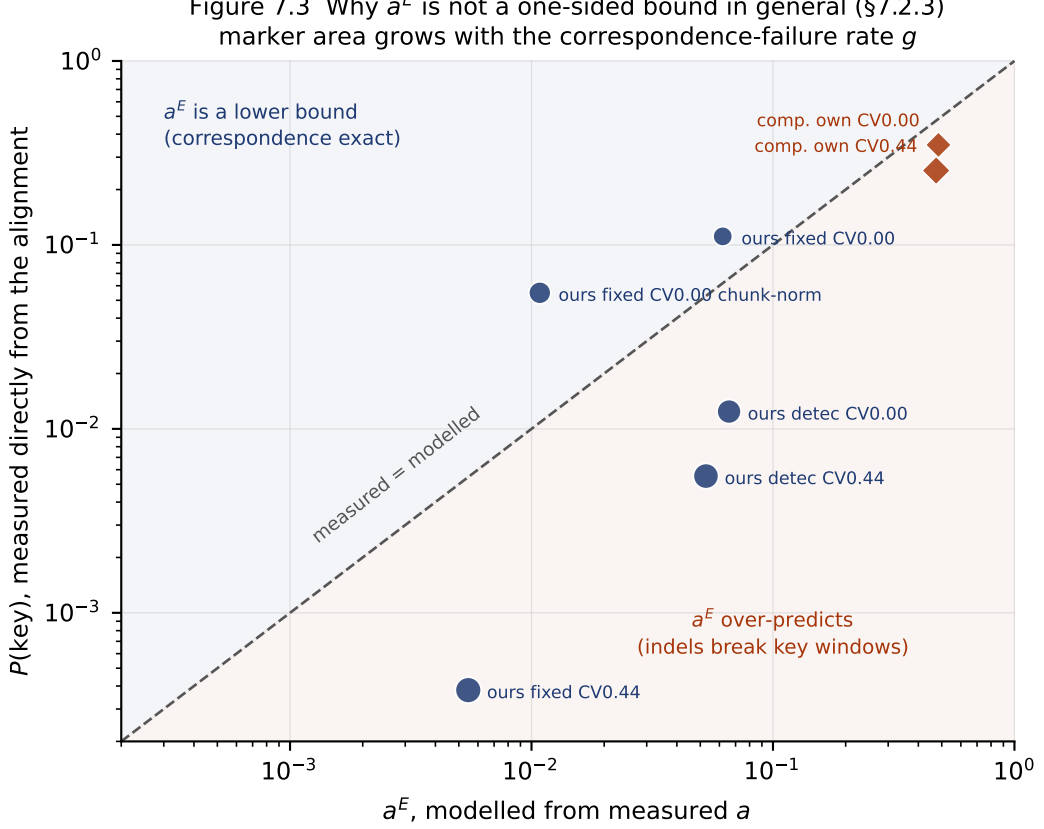

Figure 7.3 Why $a^E$ is not a one-sided bound in general (§7.2.3)
marker area grows with the correspondence-failure rate $g$
$a^E$ is a lower bound (correspondence exact)
comp. own CV0.00
comp. own CV0.44
ours fixed CV0.00
ours fixed CV0.00 chunk-norm
ours detec CV0.00
ours detec CV0.44
measured = modelled
$a^E$ over-predicts
(indels break key windows)
ours fixed CV0.44
$P$(key), measured directly from the alignment
$a^E$, modelled from measured $a$
$10^0$
$10^{-1}$
$10^{-2}$
$10^{-3}$